5. Non-Timed Items

5.1 Discussion of Contractor Compliance Issues

- Dena stated that there have been compliance issues that are ongoing in regards to paperwork not matching what has been entered into the state system for reporting. This issue came up for FY2017-18 and FY2018-19 annual monitoring and there has been no improvement.
- Aggregate service units are not being entered and client assessment/reassessments for Home Delivered meal clients are not being completed.
- Kelsey inquired as to whether training has been offered; Dena explained that AAA staff have provided templates from other centers and offered technical assistance but received no request to help.
- Jonathan requested to respond to these comments; he stated the center has been having difficulty with staff turnover and the loss of their admin staff member to a car accident. Jonathan stated the Lakeport Senior Center has the lowest food cost and the best food.

- Eileen stated she could see that Jonathan is passionate about the center and understands the struggle faced with the small amounts of funding available.
- Dena stated that the compliance issues have been an ongoing problem and lack of communication has made it difficult to correct the issues.
- Jonathan stated he dislikes email and would prefer to be called on the phone if there are issues.
- It was mentioned by Kelsey that email is beneficial to both parties because it can be shown exactly what was said and when.
- Kelsey asked how AAA staff can support the center and help them resolve the issues.
- Dena offered to have AAA staff enter service units if the center needs.
- Jonathan stated he did not need help with service unit entry at this time and Kelsey asked what his solution would be for the issues discussed, Jonathan stated he would like to see more training and support rather than criticism.
- Kelsey stated she wanted to let center staff know that the hard work and large service area they have taken over is recognized and appreciated.
- Jonathan mentioned the removal of aggregate from the funding formula and Kelsey informed him this was not the time to discuss this and that it could be placed on the next Governing Board meeting agenda for discussion.
- Kelsey requested that Lakeport staff create a list what assistance is needed and send it to her when complete as there seemed to be no direct answer on what assistance is needed for the senior center.
- Kelsey suggested the Jonathan and AAA staff work together to set up a meeting and make a list of needs to go over together to come up with a plan of action to move forward.
- Kelsey directed AAA staff to create a list of what AAA is responsible for and discuss this at the next scheduled Contractors meeting.
- Eddie stated he appreciated Jonathan's presence at the meeting today and that he understands Jonathan's passion, but that the way he presented was offensive to Boards and that others would not allowed him to continue speaking past the 3 minutes allotted for public comment.
- Eileen stated that there needs to be a plan of longevity for the issues discussed.
- Kelsey suggested that AAA staff make a list of things the AAA is responsible for and discussing it center staff so that expectations are clear.
- Crystal suggested that center staff work on responding to AAA emails so that communication can be clear and timely and that email is a communication tool that shows exactly what was said and when, which protects both parties.

6. Public Expression

- Eileen reported that she has been working with the Census Committee on collecting much need responses from older adults; they expect that at least 60% of responses received for the Census completed online. There are currently 125 of 600 needed
