MHAB

On March 18, 2021, the Mental Health Advisory Board members accepted the resignation of one of our members, Michael Ray, and held a special election to replace the previous chair, Ronnie Duncan, who resigned from the MHAB in February. Julie Colfax was elected to the position of Chair pro tem, and Trish Byrne to the position of Vice-Chair pro tem.

Of the seven member advisory board, there are now three vacancies remaining to be filled. Therefore, this advisory board is requesting that notice of these openings be posted and included in any published outreach or recruitment, designed to fill such vacant seats.

Our next meeting will be held via Zoom on April 15, 2021, at 3 p.m. and invitations have already been sent to yourselves and the advisory board members, as well as other stakeholders who are regular attendees of these meetings. The board also requests that the persistent Zoom link noted in that invitation, and included below, be added to any online or physical location where such links are regularly posted for public access and participation.

Persistent Zoom Link (this link will be used for every monthly meeting):

We thank you for your attention in these matters, and continue to look forward to working with you.
